bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and any objections to the relief requested herein having been withdrawn or are overruled on the merits; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is granted as set forth herein.
2. The Oversight Board may implement the following actions and procedures relating to the Commonwealth-COFINA Dispute:
  - a. The Oversight Board, as representative of title III debtor Commonwealth of Puerto Rico pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), shall appoint an independent agent to serve as the Commonwealth representative to litigate and/or settle the Commonwealth-COFINA Dispute on behalf of the Commonwealth (the “Commonwealth Agent”).
  - b. The Oversight Board shall select the Commonwealth Agent from among the general statutory creditors’ committee that may be appointed in the Commonwealth’s title III case and at least two nominations made by the creditors of the Commonwealth listed on Exhibit B of the Motion.
  - c. An independent agent shall be appointed to serve as the COFINA representative to litigate and/or settle the Commonwealth-COFINA Dispute on behalf of COFINA (the “COFINA Agent”).
  - d. The COFINA Agent must be an individual upon whom the COFINA Senior Bondholders’ Coalition, Ambac Assurance Corporation, and National Public Finance Guarantee Corporation (together, the “COFINA Senior Representatives”) unanimously agree. The COFINA Senior Representatives will submit the nominee to serve as the COFINA Agent within 10 days of entry of this Order, who shall be appointed as the COFINA Agent.
  - e. If the creditors on Exhibit B of the Motion fail to agree on two nominations, Oversight Board members Arthur J. Gonzalez and David A. Skeel shall select the Commonwealth Agent after consulting with creditors of the Commonwealth and considering potential persons that had and had not been nominated.
  - f. Each Agent shall be entitled to retain legal and other professionals it reasonably deems appropriate.
    - i. Each Agent and each of its retained advisors shall be compensated by the Debtor on whose behalf they are acting, in conformity with PROMESA section 316 and any interim compensation procedures ordered by the Court.

- g. In advance of the commencement of any litigation to resolve the Commonwealth-COFINA Dispute, the Agents shall agree to a schedule constructed to enable the appropriate court to rule, on a final basis, on the Commonwealth-COFINA Dispute, on or before November 1, 2017, in the absence of a prior settlement. This Order does not impair or release any rights of the government or the Oversight Board under PROMESA or otherwise, including PROMESA section 305.
  - h. Each of the COFINA Senior Representatives shall be authorized to intervene in any litigation commenced to resolve the Commonwealth-COFINA Dispute without any further order of the Court.
  - i. The COFINA Agent shall owe fiduciary duties to COFINA, and not to any individual creditor or creditor group.
  - j. Each Agent shall endeavor to the best of the Agent's ability under the circumstances to litigate and negotiate from the perspective of what result is best for the Debtor the Agent represents based on the Agent's estimation of the probabilities of the potential outcomes, as opposed to what result is best for any particular type of creditor of the Debtor the Agent represents, consistent with the approach explained by Chancellor Allen of the Delaware Chancery Court in Credit Lyonnais Bank Nederland, N.V. v. Pathe Communications Corp., 1991 Del. Ch. LEXIS 215*108 n. 55 (Del. Ch. 1991), and espoused in Protective Committee for Independent Shareholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424-425 (1968).
  - k. To the extent it is necessary or desirable to link a settlement to the treatment of creditors' claims in a title III plan of adjustment, the Oversight Board may participate in the negotiations in an effort to reach such a settlement. For the avoidance of doubt, except upon further order of the Court, no Agent shall have the authority to litigate or settle any matter other than the Commonwealth-COFINA Dispute.
  - l. Any settlement negotiated by the Agents shall only be effective upon (i) an order of the Court granting a motion requesting approval of such settlement, or (ii) confirmation of a title III plan of adjustment incorporating such settlement.
  - m. Notwithstanding the appointment of Agents, the Oversight Board shall remain the only party authorized by PROMESA to propose a title III plan of adjustment, and to carry out that power and duty, the Oversight Board may, at any time, propose a title III plan of adjustment for the Commonwealth and/or COFINA that incorporates a settlement of the Commonwealth-COFINA Dispute developed by the Agents.
3. The mediation that began prior to the commencement of the above captioned title III cases among the COFINA senior bondholders, COFINA subordinate bondholders, monoline insurers, general obligation bondholders, and the Oversight Board, among others, shall resume promptly. The mediator shall be selected from among the members of the Court-appointed Mediation Team.

4. Nothing herein shall deprive AAFAF and the government of any standing and other rights to appear that they have in any litigation relating to the Commonwealth-COFINA Dispute or any other litigations.

5. The Debtor and the Oversight Board, as the Debtors' representative, are authorized to take all actions, and to execute all documents, necessary or appropriate, to effectuate the relief granted in this order in accordance with the Motion.

6. The Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this order.
